

Congratulations to Church Members and Friends..... (Continued)

Jamaica Miles, was one of the recipients of the Excellence in Social Justice Award given by the New York State Council of Churches on Thursday, May 3, 2018. Noted in the NYS Council dinner program, “Jamaica Miles is a proud mother of four who believes that all people deserve dignity and respect regardless of their race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, economic status, or country of origin. As the Capital District Lead Organizer for Citizen Action of New York, Jamaica has organized and led community meetings with anywhere from 10—150 people and rallies and demonstrations as large as 9,000. She is often invited to speak at local college campuses and community panel discussions. She works in coalition with various community groups and organizations as well as an advisor to local student groups...”
