Nominating Committee* The Committee worked hard and identified nine people who they think speak to the diversity of church members whether through age, denomination, gender, or other quality, that are committed to searching for and calling the church's next pastor. They initially hoped to find at least five members, and were pleased to have nine volunteers, four from Emmanuel Baptist and five from Friedens UCC who have agreed "to work in prayerful discernment together on this important task." Thank you to all.
